TREES IN CALIFORNIA.-Nature varies the oak tree in California into a large range of forms, scrub trees, apple tree caks, grand meaculine structures that hold out their branches properly at right angles, and superb, towering, spreading, arching forms that blend with the natural majesty of their stock the grace of the elm. But none of them have the fiber and muscle of the New England oaks. It is said that there is no timber in the state hard enough to make a good axe-handle out of. They are to be dealt with in a summary way. If a man even seems to look sancily at an Austrian soldier, or policeman, or informer, he is ." deemed capable of fomenting hostile projects against the imperial government;" his name is to be put upon a black list; and within a fortnight after the date of the proclemation, he has to be torn from his family and friends, and forcibly enlisted in one of the working companies of the Austrian army. The difference between this description of soldiery and the ordinary corps is simply, we believe, that physical defects are no. impediment to his service. He may be lame, blind, humpbacked, or without arms, but still he is fit for "service," which means imprisonment, in one of the peculiar fortresses with which Austria is crowded ... L Short Speech by Gov. Seward. THE PROCRESS OF REPUBLICAN IDEAS IN

After some logical ullusions, he said:

We are all engaged in building up a great country, that is to pervade a continent, and as we hope to last forever. Every vote given the great dense this great en by us is so much work done in this great undertaking. The difference between parties has at last come to be simply this that the republican thinks and studies the effect of his work. The democrat casts his vote for his party, because he has always done so, and he has always done so before because his father did so before him. Now, my good democratic friend, your vote, if wroug, will affect not only your own welfare, but mine, and the welfare of endless gener ations here and elsewhere, just as my vote-will affect your welfare and that of the same generations. I submit that if I am obliged to think and give you good reasons for my vote; you are equally bound to think and give me good reasons for yours. The simple only issue is the extension or non-extension of slavery throughout this great nation or empire, which we are all building. On this point there would be, if we could get at it fairly, not one dissenting vote. If there had never been any know nothing party, nor any whige party; nor any democratic party, we should all see alike; that slavery is wrong in itself, and dangerous" and ruinous to our country, and that, therefore, it ought not to be any further extended. [Ap-

We should see this for the reason so simply and broadly stated in the declaration of independence, namely, that it is self-evident. Men cannot fail to see what is self-evident, if they are not blinded. Past parties have blinded us; that is all. "I congratulate you that we are more and more recovering our sight. Pennsylvania and Indiana (cheers)

If we needed more evidence, it is to be found here. Twenty or more years ago, those good old friends around, whose hair was as black then as yours is now, but is now turning white as mine is, used to call me here to maintain them in this same con troversy. They were overborne and I, although not a boisterous man, was threaten They were overborne; and I, ald to be committed to fail for my too grea boldness at the polls in opposition to the popular sentiment of the Swamp Angelsy as they were called, would come up in roops from the lowlands along the canal, and Mentz would roll up a tremendous maority against what was called abolitionism the region from which those ancient democratic voters used to come, and lo! they were crowding the boats with republican Wide Awakes for this meeting: It is a sure sign when the Swamp Angels of Mentz are changed into Wide Awakes. So the world does move. (Great applause.)

But I must be short, for it is time for me o go home. Republicans of Cayuga, you have claimed to be in advance of this greatmovement, and I have enjoyed a share with you in this claim. The irrepressible conflict approaches its triumph. (Loud cheers.)
It is to triumph all along the line of our counties and of all free states. Shall we be outdone by our converted brethren, by newly enlisted allies ? ... (Cries of no. no. Well, I take your word for it.... Cayuga will, in proportion to her population, give the largest vote for Abraham Lincoln, the first republican president of the United States.

who are guilty of being suspected-deemed capable of want of enthusiastic admiration of the Austrian tyrants-must be compelled to millitary service. Their antecedents, their opinions, their very look and walk (de-portment) are the sole evidences to place with in a summary way. 1 If a man even seems to look sancily at an Austrian soldier, or policeman, or informer, he is sideemed capable of fomenting hostile projects against the imperial government;" his name is to be put upon a black list; and within a forthas to be torn from his family and friends, and forcibly enlisted in one of the working companies of the Austrian army... The difference between this description of soldiery and the ordinary corps is simply, we believe, that physical defects are no impediment to his service. He may be lame, blind, humpbacked, or without arms, but still he is fit for "service," which means imprisonment, in one of the peculiar fortresses with which Austria is crowded. All this to a suspected man ! They could not give much worse treatment to one who had been tried and convicted. • This is Austrian rule in Venice. Is sit surprising that sit is by no means

TREES IN CALIFORNIA.—Nature varies the oak tree in California into a large range of forms, scrub trees, apple tree oaks, grand masculine structures that hold out their branches properly at right angles, and superb, towering, spreading, arching forms, that blend with the natural majesty of their stock the grace of the elm in But none of them have the fiber and muscle of the New England oaks. It is said that there is no timber in the state hard enough to make a good axe-handle out of. The most stalwart looking of the structures I am speaking of, if out down, would be likely to break as under in half a dozen places by the shock of

CAPITAL AND SURBLUS,

WHE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their rendition and solicit business entirely upon their rend merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brocklyn-securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of pantic, as the experience of the past tenches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and omerided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplies on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above numed companies always have and keep over and above their capital luice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policiose issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutall Companies, and a creating its rise nietzed for series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000 all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Short Speech by Gov. Seward.

Port Byron, Cayuga county, was the scene of a brilliant republican demonstration on Thursday last. Gov. Seward, who was casually present; made a very short speech .-

country, that is to pervade a continent, and as we hope to last forever. Every vote given by us is so much work done in this great undertaking. The difference between parties has at last come to be simply this—that the republican thinks and studies the effect of his work. The democrat casts his vote for his party, because he has always done so, and he has always done so before because his father did so before him. Now, my good democratic friend, your vote, if wrong, will affect not only your own welfare, but mine, and the welfare of endless generations here and elsewhere, just as my vote will affect your welfare and that of the same generations. I submit that if I am obliged to think and give you good reasons for my yote, you are equally bound to think and give me good reasons for yours. The simple only issue is the extension or non-extension of slavery throughout this great nation or empire, which we are all building. On this point there would be, if we could get at it fairly, not one dissenting vote. If there had never been any know nothing party, nor any whig party, nor any democratic party, we should all see alike, that slavery is wrong in itself, and dangerous and ruinous to our country, and that, therefore, it ought not to be any further extended. [Ap-

We should see this for the reason so simply and broadly stated in the declaration of independence, namely, that it is self-evident. Men cannot fail to see what is self-evident, if they are not blinded. Past parties have blinded us; that is all. I congratulate you that we are more and more recovering our sight. Pennsylvania and Indiana (cheers) have at last regained their sight.

If we needed more evidence, it is to be found here. Twenty or more years ago, troversy. They were overborne, and I, alboldness at the polls in opposition to the popular sentiment. The Swamp Angels, as they were called, would come up in troops from the lowlands along the canal, and Mentz would roll up a tremendous macratic voters used to come, and lo! they were crowding the boats with republican Wide Awakes for this meeting. It is a sure sign when the Swamp Angels of Mentz are changed into Wide Awakes. So the world does move. (Great applause.) flict approaches its triumph. (Loud cheers.) It is to triumph all along the line of our counties and of all free states. Shall we be outdone by our converted brethren, by newly enlisted allies? (Cries of no. no.) Well, I take your word for it. Cayuga will, in proportion to her population, give the largest vote for Abraham Lincoln, the first

TREES IN CALIFORNIA.—Nature varies the oak tree in California into a large range of forms, scrub trees, apple tree oaks, grand masculine structures that hold out their branches properly at right angles, and superb, towering, spreading, arching forms that blend with the natural majesty of their stock the grace of the elm. But none of them have the fiber and muscle of the New England oaks. It is said that there is no timber in the state hard enough to make a good axe-handle out of. The most stalwart ooking of the structures I am speaking of, if cut down, would be likely to break asunder in half a dozen places by the shock of its fall.

But however "brash" they may be, they are glorious to look at, when every downward branch is decked with delicate pendants of green gray moss. The moss is collected, boiled and dried, to be stuffed into cushions and beds. It is very hard to kill, and requires long cooking in the hot water, and when cured, it comes out black and resembles hair. I saw many a tree whose jesses would furnish ample stock for a bed .-What a couch for a poet!-Starr King.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THAFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTINE OF CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODING MEMORY FREE STATE OF THESE THING BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE FORLE OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THAIRD MASTERS OF BOTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEMORY OF THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEMORY OF THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEMORY OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Badwah is in bad way again. He has picked up a new batch of lies which must be disposed of, and he very properly resorts to the columns of the Democrat for that purpose. Like a street scavenger he can-Mississippi, Louisiana, not carry about with him all the filthy garbage which he collects; and when loaded, must resort to the common receptacle, where the "hounds" who employ him desire it to be used.

He finds fault because our candidate for the assembly is well spoken of in the newspapers at the east, where he formerly lived. This grieves the envious soul of Badwah, if he has a soul. It offends him sorely, because it is a compliment, which was, probably, not given to him when he "left his country for his country's good," If, however, such a notice had been vouchsafed to him, ion, they will not have a solitary electoral it would not have been recognised here, as of Badwah in the land of his nativity.

It is charged that Mr. Graham writes his own biography. Of course Badwah don't know any thing about this, and merely makes a random assertion; not careing whether it is true or not, so that the slander is set affoat. So far as it applies to any thing written for the Gazette it is entirely false; and we have no doubt it is so in relation to the other papers which have noticed Mr. Graham's nomination.

When he says that Mr. Graham was nominated for a political office before he was a voter in the city, Badwah utters a falsehood: but we are not surprised that he does so, because a lie well insisted upon, always serves his purpose better than the truth.

Badwah without evidence, we invite him to bring on his proof.

Mr. Graham's interests are represented "to be in the north, the place of darkness." Mr. G.'s interests in this city and state, we believe, are ten times greater than Badwah's or the candidate whom he supports for the assembly; but in the "place of darkness," Badwah's claims are superior, or the chief of that region has long mistaken his man, "Mr. Graham is for Washburn." Mr. G. is wholly unpledged in relation to the office of U.S. Senator.

"Pete Baasch" does not "know that Graham will take office before he has acquired a residence in the state." He probably knows no more about this matter than Badwah, and that is nothing. When Mr. G, was elected school commissioner in this state, and a legal voter. He had private Louisville on the evening of the 24th inst. were excavated there, reasons for not voting at that time for judge, which were honorable to himself, and therefore he did not vote at all.

Badwah, not being able to invent the number of falsehoods against Mr. Graham equired by his employers, enters the family circle of Mr. G., and charges his son with being "expelled from the High School on account of his unruly conduct towards its inmates." Mr. Graham's son was suspended, not "expelled" from the High School, some two years since, for a hasty word to the principal uttered in a moment of passion. He was soon reinstated, at the instance of the principal, and has ever since been successfully pursuing his studies there. We say this much in defence of the young man, because he naturally feels keenly this imputation, and because we personally know that he was, during the last school year, an orderly and attentive student in the school.

We have followed Badwah through his tirade of abuse and falsehood, not because he has himself any claims to attention, but to show what vile means are used in this election by our opponents. Some of them stop at no personality or falsehood, and invade even the sanctity of the homes of our candidates to strike them down. We much mistake the people of this city if such an unmanly warfare will be sanctioned by them either in their private judgments, or at the polls. Popular sovereignty cannot exist in the territories, say the Douglasites when they are driven to repudiate their own arguments in favor of squatter sovereignty by the recital of the acts and votes of their leaders in congress, until an organic act is passed by that body. Popular sovereignty needs organizing by congress before it can commence its life in a territory, say theybut after that, congress has exhausted its power, and the people are left free to regulate their own affairs in their own way. But the organic acts which these lovers of popular sovereignty enact are carefully framed, so that the people have very little to do with their own affairs. For instance in the Kansas-Nebraska act the people are not allowed to elect their own governors; the number of members of the legislature is defined with their compensation, which is paid out of the national treasury; the governor appointed by federal power can forbid the passage of laws by the people's representatives, and after the veto two thirds vote in both branches is required to enact a law; if the governor refuses to become the tool people, he can dismiss him, and appoint another: the secretary of state, chief justice, attorney and marshal are also appointed by the president and senate; the jurisdiction of instices of the peace is defined and the people cannot alter it.

This is called popular sovereignty by Douglas and his followers. This is called sentiments they attered, being frequently, regulating their own affairs in their own way l

For the Daily Gazette. THE BADGER STATE RALLY. A CAMPAIGN SONG.

Tune-" Old Granite State." Have you heard from the mountains," Have you heard from the valleys, Have you heard from the hillsides Of the old KEY STONE STATE?

Coal heavers, iron mongers, Boatmen, raftmen and log-rollers, Merchants, lawyers, doctors, Quakers, Join to shout the loud acclaim!,

The PINE-TREE state has spoken, And VERMONT with voice unbroken, Indiana and Onio Are wheeling into line.

From our northern Minnesota,-The source of mighty waters, All along our western borders. The PRAIRIES are on fire!

The GRANITE STATE is coming, MASSACHUSETTS too is coming, The EMPIRE STATE is coming Full one hundred thousand strong. The NUTMEG STATE is coming, The JERSEY MEN are coming,

And the Lincoln Boys are coming, To join the moving throng. We come dear friends to meet you, With heart and hand to greet you, And we never will desert you,

In the young BADGER STATE, For we are a band of Freemen, We are a band of Freemen, We are nothing else but Freemen, And we cannot be englaved.

Then three cheers for Abr in Lincoln. Three cheers for noble Hamlin. Three cheers for Luther Hanchett, Our worthy candidates.

With freedom's banner o'er us, And victory before us, We will swell the rolling chorus. Now, then, Hip, HIP, HURRAH! Magnolia in the Field.

THE REPUBLICANS EARNESTLY PREPARING FOR THE OREAT CONTEST OF THE 6TH OF NOVEMBER.

The meeting appointed for this town, at Magnolia corners, fcame off Saturday evening. The roads were so muddy from the showers of Saturday that the speakers, John R. Bennett, James M. Burgoss and Alexander Graham, did not arrive until nearly an hour after the time appointed, when many had gone home. But notwithstanding this of the president in thwarting the will of the and the badness of the roads, the school house where the meeting was held was not large enough to accompdate the ladies and gentleman assembled. And the trustees of the church there, generously threw open its doors, for their accommodation.

The speakers were listened to with attention, and apparently with deep interest; the and at times, enthusiastically applauded. The Janesville Glee Club was present and by their stirring republican songs added to the enthusiasm of the occasion. And we cannot fail to mention a song most admirably sung by Mr. John Tompson of the Glee club, commencing I had a dream, a happy dream, I thought that I was free That in my own, my native land There was a home for me; Savannah tides rolled gally on, Unruffled by a wave.

When in the full delight I 'woke, And found myself a SLAVE. It was listened to with deep emotion, and was most heartily applauded.

The meeting held until nearly eleven o'clock, when it adjourned with a vote of thanks to the speakers and Glee club, and three rousing cheers for Lincoln and Ham-

Bodies of Mrs. Lumsden and Mrs. GARTH RECOVERED .- Wednesday morning two bodies were taken from the Lake at Evanston, which have since been identified as the bodies of the wife of Col. Lumsden, and of Mrs. Garth. Each of these bodies was from five feet two inches to five feet four inches high. The one identified as the body of Mrs. Lumsden had on only a portion of a chemise, and a plain cotton skirt. On the fingers of the left hamd were several diamond rings. Her upper teeth were all gone, as if they had been a false set, and fallen out. The body recognized as that of Mrs. Garth had on a hoop skirt, a portion of a striped silk waist, no stockings or shoes. The Evening Bulletin has information explanatory why Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, failed to meet his engagements at Centralia and elsewhere. It says:

"The recent elections have satisfied him that Douglas will not get the electoral vote of a single state; that there is imminent danger that Lincoln will be elected: and that it becomes the duty of every southern man in the presence of the dangers which stare him in the face, to forego his personal preferences, and to use every effort to combine the south, as a band of brothers, in support of that candidate who is not only evidently the most popular, but who is a the same time the most earnest defender of the rights of the south and of the states and that, believing that Mr. Breckinridge is that man, he hopes that the people of Georgia will give him their unanimous vote."

A Forgery Refuted.

SOUTH BEND, IND., Oct. 26, '50. EDITORS REGISTER - Dear Sir - I no tice in last Saturday's Forum, a speech purporting to have been delivered at Salem, Indians, in 1835, by John M. Wilson, which contains a number of scurrilous and insultng attacks on foreigners, and which pretended speech is being used by the democrats to array our adopted citizens against the republican party. The same publica-tion was made by the democratic papers of candidate for state Treasurer; and happened to be at Salem, (the very town in which this speech was alleged to have been made,) on the day that this same John M. Wilson spoke there.

In the very town where it is charged that he made this speech in 1855, Mr. Wilson branded it as a vile forgery and a wicked fabrication of political opponents. stated that he saw before him in that crowded assemblage, hundreds of both parties who had beard his speech in 1855, and he challenged any man of any party to rise and say before them that he had uttered any auch sentiments as those ascribed to him Wisconsin, who have so long been lead by Not a man denied his statement. On the contrary, a number of the most respectable citizens there made affidavits, which were published at the time, testifying that they heard the whole of the speech, and that i contained no such statement whatever .-There can be no doubt that it was a base forgery gotten up for political effect; and which, thus exposed and branded as it was on the very spot, every honorable man should be ashamed to revamp again for political ends. Yours truly, JOHN S. HARPER.

We copy the above from the St. Joseph Valley Register [published and edited by the Hon. Schuyler Colfax,] of Thursday last, 18th instant. The Register says, in regard to this great perjury:

"In the first place, John M. Wilson is not on the Lincoln electoral ticket, as will be seen by reference to the ticket at the head of our columns, or of any other republican paper. He is only a contingent, and no person will vote for him in voting the Lincoln electoral ticket. In the second place, Mr. Wilson never made any such speech as published in the Forum. It is a vile forgery got up for political effect, so denounced by Mr. Wilson himself, and so certified to by large number of the most respectable citizens of Salem who were present and heard what Mr. Wilson did say at the time and place, when and where he is charged with uttering the sentiments contained in the

I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I do expect it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing, or all the other. Either the opponents o slavery will arrest the further spread of It, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is the course of ultimate extinction: or its advocates in the course of ultimate extinction; or its advocates will push it forward, till it shall become allice lawful in all the states, old as well as new—north as well as south.

WE MUST PRRVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODE. WE MUST PREVENT EITHER OF THESE THINGS BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE PROPER OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE IGHTFUL MASTERS OF BOTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WILD PEHVERT THE CONSTITUTION.—Lincoln.

Badwah is in bad way again. He has picked up a new batch of lies which must be disposed of, and he very properly resorts to the columns of the Democrat for that purpose. Like a street scavenger he cannot carry about with him all the filthy garbage which he collects; and when loaded, must resort to the common receptacle, where the "hounds" who employ him desire it to He finds fault because our candidate for the assembly is well spoken of in the newspapers at the east, where he formerly lived. This grieves the envious soul of Badwah, if he has a soul. It offends him sorely, because it is a compliment, which was, probably, not given to him when he "left his counreceived, in favor of Lincoln. No state is try for his country's good." If, however, such a notice had been youchsafed to him ion, they will not have a solitary electoral it would not have been recognised here, as vote. Our summing up is as follows: it is reported that he did not bear the name For Lincoln..... of Badwah in the land of his nativity.

It is charged that Mr. Graham writes his own biography. Of course Badwah don't knowany thing about this, and merely makes a random assertion; not careing whether it is true or not, so that the slander is set affoat. So far as it applies to any thing written for the Gazette it is entirely false; and we have no doubt it is so in relation to the other papers which have noticed Mr. Graham's nomination.

When he says that Mr. Graham was nominated for a political office before he was a voter in the city, Badwah utters a falsehood: but we are not surprised that he does so, because a lie well insisted upon, always serves his purpose better than the truth.

Inasmuch as the public will not believe Badwah without evidence, we invite him to

Mr. Graham's son was suspended, not "expelled" from the High School, some two years since, for a heaty word to the principal, uttered in a moment of passion. He was soon reinstated, at the instance of the principal, and has ever since been successfully pursuing his studies there. We say this much in defence of the young man, because he naturally feels keenly this imputation, and because we personally know that he was, during the last school year, an

We have followed Badwah through his tirade of abuse and falsehood, not because he has himself any claims to attention, but to show what vile means are used in this election by our opponents. the territories, say the Douglasites when they are driven to repudiate their own arguments in favor of squatter sovereignty by the recital of the acts and votes of their leaders in congress, until an organic act is passed by that body. Popular sovereignty needs organizing by congress before it can commence its life in a territory, say theybut after that, congress has exhausted its power, and the people are left free to regulate their own affairs in their own way. But the organic acts which these lovers of popular sovereignty enact are carefully framed, so that the people have very little to do with their own affairs. For instance in the Kansas-Nebraska act the people are not allowed to elect their own governors; the number of members of the legislature is defined with their compensation, which is paid out of the national treasury; the governor appointed by federal power can forbid the passage of laws by the people's representatives, and after the veto two thirds vote in both branches is required to enact a law: if the governor refuses to become the tool of the president in thwarting the will of the and the badness of the roads, the school people, he can dismiss him, and appoint an. house where the meeting was held was not other; the secretary of state, chief justice, attorney and marshal are also appointed by gentleman assembled. And the trustees of the president and senate; the jurisdiction the church there, generously threw open its of justices of the peace is defined and the doors, for their accommodation. people cannot alter it.

This is called popular sovereignty by tion, and apparently with deep interest; the Douglas and his followers. This is called sentiments they uttered, being frequently, regulating their own affairs in their own and at times, enthusiastically applauded.

EDITORS REGISTER. Dear Sir: I notice in last Saturday's Forum, a speech puro'clock, when it adjourned with a vote of porting to have been delivered at Salem, thanks to the speakers and Glee club, and Indiana, in 1835, by John M. Wilson, which contains a number of scurrilous and insulting attacks on foreigners, and which pretended speech is being used by the democrats to array our adopted citizens against the republican party. The same publica-tion was made by the democratic papers of this state in 1858. I was at that time a candidate for state Treasurer; and happened to be at Salem, (the very town in which this speech was alleged to have been made,) on the day that this same John M. Wilson snoke there.

In the very town where it is charged that he made this speech in 1855, Mr. Wilson. branded it as a vile forgery and a wicked fabrication of political opponents. He also stated that he saw before him in that crowded assemblage, hundreds of both parties who had heard his speech in 1855, and he challenged any man of any party to rise and say before them that he had uttered any want of intelligence in the democracy of such sentiments as those ascribed to him Wisconsin, who have so long been lead by Not a man denied his statement. On the contrary, a number of the most respectable citizens there made affidavits, which were published at the time, testifying that they heard the whole of the speech, and that it contained no such statement whatever .--There can be no doubt that it was a base forgery gotten up for political effect: and which, thus exposed and branded as it was on the very spot, every honorable man should be ashamed to revamp again for political ends. Yours truly,
JOHN S. HARPER.

We copy the above from the St. Joseph Valley Register [published and edited by the Hon. Schuyler Colfax,] of Thursday last, 18th instant. The Register says, in regard to this great perjury:

"In the first place, John M. Wilson is not on the Lincoln electoral ticket, as will be seen by reference to the ticket at the head of our columns, or of any other republican paper. He is only a contingent, and no person will vote for him in voting the Lincoin electoral ticket. In the second place, Mr. Wilson never made any such speech as published in the Forum. It is a vile forgery got up for political effect, so denounced by Mr. Wilson himself, and so certified to by a large number of the most respectable citizens of Salem who were present and heard what Mr. Wilson did say at the time and place, when and where he is charged with uttering the sentiments contained in the Forum.

The Democrat of this city has at last published this villainous slander. We have been expecting it for some weeks, but that paper never takes to a lie until it gets old, and after every body else is disgusted with it. It will serve its purpose until after elec. at 74 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans of the city will attend as generally as possible.

Necessity for a Republican Majority Look to the Legislature.

Aside from the election of a United States Senator by the legislature to be chosen next. week, a new apportionment of senatorial and assembly districts is to be made. If congress should pass the new congressional apportionment in season for action by our next legislature, a new districting for congress will also devolve upon the members now to be chosen.

What republican is willing to interest a democrat with those important duties-the election of a U.S. Senator and a legislative apportionment, certainly, and possibly a congressional apportionment-when a republican can be elected to do this work? Is any one willing to put this power in the hands of an enemy when it can be delegated to a friend?

A special and exclusive effort will be made by the democrats to obtain the control of the next legislature. The attempt now making, by every falsehood and device conceivable, to defeat Mr. Graham, has reference to this end and this purpose. If they can succeed, they rob the republicans of Wisconsin of a chief benefit of the national victory about to be achieved. Under these circumstances, it is an insult to any and every republican to ask him to vote for Mr. Richardson. The loss of Mr. Graham, if that could be effected, might lose the legislature to the republicans, and place, at this important time, its whole power, with all its benefits, in the hands of the democrats. What republican can, consistently with his duty, aid in this deep-laid scheme? Resist. then, the appeals so persistently made, to vote for Mr. Richardson, under the plea that one member of the legislature is of no consequence and cannot change its political character. The same game that is being played in this city is going on in other districts in every part of the state. Mr. Graham is a political friend; Mr. Richardson is a political enemy; and this is a POLITICAL battle that is waging. A POLITICAL victory is to be lost or won.

Gov. Randall To-Night.

Gov. Randall speaks at the Court Room this evening. The Governor is one of the best speakers in the state, thoroughly understanding the question in issue before the people, with the ability to discuss it fully, and will make an effective speech. If the democrats of the city are at all disposed to return the compliment paid by republicans to their speakers when they come here, they will give Gov. R. a hearing to-night. crowded sudience.

LECTURE AT THE COURT ROOM.-There will be a lecture at the court room to-morrow evening on " Home Education; or Woman's Sphere in the Domestic Circle, as Daughter, Wife and Mother," by E. A. Monroe. From a note addressed us by the lecturess, we judge that she does not advocate the theory generally understood as "Woman's Rights," and those who wish to hear what a woman has to say as to the proper sphere and duties of her sex will do well to attend. The lecture will be free, and a collection taken to defray expenses.

Moseley & Bro. have part 16 of Cassell's Bible, also Harper, Atlantic and all the magazines for November.

Meeting at Evansville.

The republicans of Evansville had a lively and interesting meeting last Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the rain during the day and the late arrival of the speakers, the house was crowded with an intelligent audience. The meeting continued nearly four hours, and was effectively addressed by Messrs. Sloan, Cassoday, Rev. Mr. Starr, Prof. Kilgore, Hon. Jeremiah Johnson and others. The speeches were well received and the meeting was enthusiastic throughout, and closed up with three cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The republicans of Union are at work and propose doing their proportion towards increasing the republican majority to 3,500 in Old Rock. The town is nearly canvassed and arrangements will be made to bring every voter to the polls on election day. Will other towns in the county be found wanting? Let republicans everywhere wake up and commence the fight and prepare for the victory.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL MOVEMENTS .- It will be seen by referring to our telegraphic column that Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, who was announced to speak at Centralia, Ill., for Douglas, has declined to fill the appointment, and has announced his intention to support Breckinridge. Thus the leading friends of Douglas at the south desert him, to rally around their sectional candidate. On the other hand, the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat, the leading Douglas organ in Minnesota, announces that the hope of electing Douglas has vanished; that his principles are no longer at issue in this campaign, and more than intimates that it is the duty of the friends of Douglas in the north to vote for Lincoln. We shall publish the article to-morrow.

THE BLUE COCKADE .- The "minute men" formed in state of South Carolina, have adopted a blue cockade. In 1798 the federal party adopted the black cockade, which became an odious political badge, so that those who had worn them were glad to conceal the fact from the public in after years. So it will be with the southern blue cock-

The cowardly and brutal attack by the democratic ruffians of Troy, N. Y., upon a NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUI peaceable procession passing through the streets of that city, shows that barbarism is not confined to the southern states. It was an assault that called forth an indignant condemnation on the part of all decent men, of all parties. But the "hand organ" over the river finds in it a matter for meriment and evident approval.

Modern democracy either of itself, or by ts influence and effect, extinguishes all manhood and decency in its advocates, or has the power above all other parties of drawing to its embrace the cowardly and brutal. There are of course many exceptions to the rule-there are some deluded enough to be democrats who remain manly and honorable under all its adverse influences. A marked instance of this was exhibited in the Watertown Democrat's condemnation of the assault upon the Wide Awakes of that city a few days ago. But the managers of the liand organ are evidentby sunk into the lowest sewer of party filth. their cowardice and brutality, either natural or acquired, is given full play. They too would attempt to interfere with republican meetings and processions did not a whole-At all events, let republicans give him a some public opinion and their fears keep them in check, but they cannot help show ing their approval of what all decent men condemn. Phonix Insurance Co. of Hartford. We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an in-surance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.-

Continental Insurance Company. This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful struc-ture will at once be creeted, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institu-tion of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Com-mencing with a cash capital of half a mil-lion of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential busi-ness men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live speakers. The Hon. Luther Hanchett has and grow a thousand years, and—continue promised to be here during the week.

The True Issue.

I is-lieve this government cannot endure permanents until stave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be disserted—I do not expect the house to fall—but I discriped it will cease to be divided. It will become all the other. Either the opponents of the opponent of the control will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is not be conversed of this man extended that it is the converse of ultimate extinction; or its advocates the course of ultimate extinction; or its advoca will push it forward, till it shall become alike lawful in old as well as new—north as well as south. - Abraham Lincoln.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODE, WI MUST PREVENT EITHER OF THESE THINGS BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE REGISTEL OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE RIGHTFUL MASTERS OF ROTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WHO PERVERT THE CONSTITUTION.—Lincoln.

Reply to a Correspondent of the Democrat.

Badwah is in bad way again. He ha picked up a new batch of lies which mu be disposed of, and he very properly resor to the columns of the Democrat for the purpose. Like a street scavenger he can not carry about with him all the filthy ga bage which he collects; and when loade must resort to the common receptacle, where the "hounds" who employ him desire it to be used.

He finds fault because our candidate for the assembly is well spoken of in the newspapers at the east, where he formerly lived. This grieves the envious soul of Badwah, if he has a soul. It offends him sorely, because it is a compliment, which was, probably, not given to him when he "left his country for his country's good." If, however, left for Douglas and Johnson. In our opin such a notice had been youchsafed to him? it would not have been recognised here, as it is reported that he did not bear the name of Badwah in the land of his nativity.

It is charged that Mr. Graham writes his own biography. Of course Badwah don't know any thing about this, and merely makes a random assertion; not careing whether it is true or not, so that the slander is set affoat. So far as it applies to any thing written for the Gazette it is entirely false; and we have no doubt it is so in relation to the other papers which have noticed Mr. Graham's nomination.

When he says that Mr. Graham was nominated for a political office before he was a voter in the city, Badwah utters a falsehood; but we are not surprised that he does so, because a lie well insisted upon, always serves his purpose better than the truth.

Inasmuch as the public will not believe Badwah without evidence, we invite him to bring on his proof.

Mr. Graham's interests are represented "to be in the north, the place of darkness." or the candidate whom he supports for the assembly; but in the "place of darkness," Badwah's claims are superior, or the chief of that region has long mistaken his man.

"Mr. Graham is for Washburn." Mr. G. is wholly unpledged in relation to the office of U. S. Senator.

reasons for not voting at that time for judge, which were honorable to himself, and therefore he did not vote at all.

Badwah, not being able to invent the number of falsehoods against Mr. Graham required by his employers, enters the family circle of Mr. G., and charges his son with being "expelled from the High School on account of his unruly conduct towards its inmates." Mr. Graham's son was suspended, not "expelled" from the High School, some two years since, for a hasty word to the principal, uttered in a moment of passion. He was soon reinstated, at the instance of the principal, and has ever since been successfully pursuing his studies there. We say this much in defence of the young man, because he naturally feels keenly this imputation, and because we personally know that be was, during the last school year, an orderly and attentive student in the school.

We have followed Badwah through his tirade of abuse and falsehood, not because he has himself any claims to attention, but to show what vile means are used in this election by our opponents. Some of them stop at no personality or falsehood, and invade even the sanctity of the homes of our candidates to strike them down. We much mistake the people of this city if such an unmanly warfare will be sanctioned by them, either in their private judgments, or at the Popular sovereignty cannot exist in the territories, say the Douglasites when they are driven to repudiate their own arguments in favor of squatter sovereignty by the recital of the acts and votes of their leaders in congress, until an organic act is passed by that body. Popular sovereignty needs organizing by congress before it can commence its life in a territory, say theybut after that, congress has exhausted its power, and the people are left free to regulate their own affairs in their own way. But the organic acts which these lovers of popular sovereignty enact are carefully framed. so that the people have very little to do with their own affairs. For instance in the Kansas-Nebraska act the people are not allowed to elect their own governors; the number of members of the legislature is defined with their compensation, which is paid out of the national treasury; the governor appointed by federal power can forbid showers of Saturday that the speakers, John the passage of laws by the people's representatives, and after the veto two thirds vote | der Graham, did not arrive until nearly an in both branches is required to enact a law; if the governor refuses to become the tool of the president in thwarting the will of the people, he can dismiss him, and appoint an. | house where the meeting was held was not other; the secretary of state, chief justice, large enough to accommodate the ladies and attorney and marshal are also appointed by gentleman assembled. And the trustees of the president and senate; the jurisdiction the church there, generously threw open its of justices of the peace is defined and the | doors, for their accommodation. people cannot alter it.

This is called popular sovereignty by Douglas and his followers. This is called regulating their own affairs in their own and at times, enthusiastically applauded.

A most excellent and bountiful supper was prepared for the gentlemen from Janesville, for which they are supposed to be indebted to Samuel Holdridge, Jr., and Hugh Bunting, whose generosity they may be assured was not unappreciated.

We observe that the democracy of Indiana charge their defeat in that state, to the treachery of the Breckinridge men, who followed the lead of Senator Bright; while in Pennsylvania they are hanging Col. ### A Forgery Refuted.

SOUTH BEND, IND., Oct. 26, '50. EDITORS REGISTER .- Dear Sir :- I notice in last Saturday's Forum, a speech purporting to have been delivered at Salem, indiana, in 1835, by John M. Wilson, which contains a number of scurrilous and insulting attacks on foreigners, and which pretended speech is being used by the democrats to array our adopted citizens against the republican party. The same publica-tion was made by the democratic papers of this state in 1858. I was at that time a candidate for state Treasurer; and happened to be at Salem, (the very town in which this speech was alleged to have been made,) on the day that this same John M. Wilson spoke there.

In the very town where it is charged that he made this speech in 1855, Mr. Wilson branded it as a vile forgery and a wicked fabrication of political opponents. He also stated that he saw before him in that crowded assemblage, hundreds of both parties who had heard his speech in 1855, and he challenged any man of any party to rise and say before them that he had uttered any want of intelligence in the democracy of such sentiments as those ascribed to him. Wisconsin, who have so long been lead by Not a man denied his statement. On the contrary, a number of the most respectable citizens there made affidavits, which were published at the time, testifying that they heard the whole of the speech, and that it contained no such statement whatever .-There can be no doubt that it was a base forgery gotten up for political effect; and which, thus exposed and branded as it was on the very spot, every honorable man should be ashamed to revamp again for political ends. Yours truly,

JOHN S. HARPER. We copy the above from the St. Joseph Valley Register [published and edited by the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Thursday last, 18th instant. The Register says, in regard to this great perjury:

"In the first place, John M. Wilson is not on the Lincoln electoral ticket, as will be seen by reference to the ticket at the head of our columns, or of any other republican paper. He is only a contingent, and no person will vote for him in voting the Lincoln electoral ticket. In the second place, Mr. Wilson never made any such speech as published in the Forum. It is a vile forgery got up for political effect, so denounced by Mr. Wilson himself, and so certified to by a large number of the most respectable citizens of Salem who were present and heard what Mr. Wilson did say at the time and place, when and where he is charged with uttering the sentiments contained in the Forum The Democrat of this city has at last published this villainous slander. We have been expecting it for some weeks, but that paper never takes to a lie until it gets old. and after every body else is disgusted with it. It will serve its purpose until after election, as well as a new falsehood.

The following "good thing" was on one of the banners carried in a republican procession at Providence, R. L., a few days

"We gave Douglas our clams; We will give Lincoln our votes."

Every county in the northern tier of Indiana gives republican majorities. In 1852 every one of the same counties gave Pierce majorities.

Ms. L. Mosss—Dear Sir: —Having had in constant use for nearly a year, a set of Lent's Patent Bed Springs purchased of you. I am prepared to recommend the same as the best article of the kind which has ever come under my notice. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is condusive to health, as it sustains the mattrase in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

Gov. RANDALL will speak at the Court Room in Janesville. Monday Evening, Oct. 29th., at 71 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans of the city will attend as generally as possible. Mesestity for a Republican Majority.

Look to the Legislature. Aside from the election of a United States Senator by the legislature to be chosen next week, a new apportionment of senatorial and assembly districts is to be made. If congress should pass the new congressional apportionment in season for action by our next legislature, a new districting for congress will also devolve upon the members now to be chosen. What republican is willing to interest a democrat with those important duties-the election of a U.S. Senator and a legislative apportionment, certainly, and possibly a congressional apportionment-when a republican can be elected to do this work? Is any one willing to put this power in the hands of an enemy when it can be delegated to a friend? A special and exclusive effort will be made by the democrats to obtain the control of the next legislature. The attempt now making, by every falsehood and device conceivable, to defeat Mr. Graham, has reference to this end and this purpose. If they can succeed, they rob the republicans of Wisconsin of a chief benefit of the national victory about to be achieved. Under these circumstances, it is an insult to any and every republican to ask him to vote for Mr. Richardson. The loss of Mr. Graham, if that could be effected, might lose the le gislature to the republicans, and place, at this important time, its whole power, with all its benefits, in the hands of the democrats. What republican can, consistently with his duty, aid in this deep-laid scheme? Resist, then, the appeals so persistently made, to vote for Mr. Richardson, under the plea that one member of the legislature is of no consequence and cannot change its political character. The same game that is being played in this city is going on in other districts in every part of the state. Mr. Graham is a political friend; Mr. Richardson is a political enemy; and this is a POLITICAL battle that is waging. A POLITICAL victory is to be lost or won.

Gov. Randall speaks at the Court Room this evening. The Governor is one of the best speakers in the state, thoroughly understanding the question in issue before the people, with the ability to discuss it fully, ly sunk into the lowest sewer of party filth: and will make an effective speech. If the democrats of the city are at all disposed to return the compliment paid by republicans to their speakers when they come here, they will give Gov. R. a bearing to-night. some public opinion and their fears keep At all events, let republicans give him a crowded andience.

will be a lecture at the court room to-morrow evening on " Home Education; or Wosphere and duties of her sex will do well to attend. The lecture will be free, and a collection taken to defray expenses.

sell's Bible, also Harper, Atlantic and all the magazines for November.

The republicans of Evansville had a lively and interesting meeting last Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the rain during the day and the late arrival of the speakers, the house was crowded with an intelligent audience. The meeting continued nearly four bours, and was effectively addressed by Messre. Sloan, Cassoday, Rev. Mr. Starr, Prof. Kilgore, Hon. Jeremiah Johnson and others. The speeches were well received and the meeting was enthusiastic throughout, and closed up with three cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The republicans of Union are at work and propose doing their proportion towards increasing the republican majority to 3,600 in Old Rock. The town is nearly canvassed and arrangements will be made to bring every voter to the polls on election day. Will other towns in the county be found wanting? Let republicans everywhere wake up and commence the fight and prepare for the victory.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL MOVEMENTS .- It will be seen by referring to our telegraphic column that Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, who was announced to speak at Centralia, Ill., for Douglas, has declined to fill the appointment, and has announced his intention to support Breckinridge. Thus the leading friends of Douglas at the south desert him, to rally around their sectional candidate. On the other hand, the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat, the leading Douglas organ in Minnesota, announces that the hope of electing Douglas has vanished; that his principles are no longer at issue in this campaign, and more than intimates that it is the duty of the friends of Douglas in the north to vote for Lincoln. We shall publish the article to-morrow.

THE BLUE COCKADE, .- The "minute men" formed in state of South Carolina, have edopted a blue cockade. In 1798 the federal party adopted the black cockede, which became an odious political badge, so that those who had worn them were glad to conceal the fact from the public in after years. So it will be with the southern blue cock-at 72 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans of the city will attend as generally as possible.

Becessity for a Republican Majority. Look to the Legislature.

Aside from the election of a United States Senator by the legislature to be chosen next week, a new apportionment of senatorial and assembly districts is to be made. If congress should pass the new congressional apportionment in season for action by our next legislature, a new districting for congress will also devolve upon the members now to be chosen.

What republican is willing to interest a democrat with those important duties-the election of a U.S. Senator and a legislative apportionment, certainly, and possibly a congressional apportionment-when a republican can be elected to do this work? Is any one willing to put this power in the hands of an enemy when it can be delegated to a friend?

A special and exclusive effort will be made by the democrats to obtain the control of the next legislature. The attempt now making, by every falsehood and device conceivable, to defeat Mr. Graham, has refcan succeed, they rob the republicans of Wisconsin of a chief benefit of the national victory about to be achieved. Under these circumstances, it is an insult to any and every republican to ask him to vote for Mr. Richardson. The loss of Mr. Graham, if that could be effected, might lose the legislature to the republicans, and place, at this important time, its whole power, with all its benefits, in the hands of the democrats. What republican can, consistently with his duty, aid in this deep-laid scheme? Resist, then, the appeals so persistently made, to vote for Mr. Richardson, under the plea that one member of the legislature is of no consequence and cannot change its political character. The same game that is being played in this city is going on in other districts in every part of the state. Mr. Graham is a political friend; Mr. Richardson is a political enemy; and this is a POLITICAL battle that is waging. A POLITICAL victory is to be lost or won.

Gov. Randall To-Night.

Gov. Randall speaks at the Court Room this evening. The Governor is one of the best speakers in the state, thoroughly understanding the question in issue before the people, with the ability to discuss it fully, and will make an effective speech. If the democrats of the city are at all disposed to return the compliment paid by republicans to their speakers when they come here, they will give Gov. R. a hearing to-night. At all events, let republicans give him a crowded audience.

LECTURE AT THE COURT ROOM.—There will be a lecture at the court room to-morrow evening on " Home Education; or Woman's Sphere in the Domestic Circle, as business part of the city. Apply to the subscriber at Daughter, Wife and Mother," by E. A. Monroe. From a note addressed us by the lecturess, we judge that she does not advocate the theory generally understood as "Woman's Rights," and those who wish to hear what a woman has to say as to the proper sphere and duties of her sex will do well to attend. The lecture will be free, and a collection taken to defray expenses.

Moseley & Bro. have part 16 of Cassell's Bible, also Harper, Atlantic and all the magazines for November.

Meeting at Evansville.

The republicans of Evansville had a lively and interesting meeting last Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the rain during the day and the late arrival of the speakers, the house was crowded with an intelligent audience. The meeting continued nearly four hours, and was effectively addressed by Messra Sloan, Cassoday, Rev. Mr. Starr, Prof. Kilgore, Hon. Jeremiah Johnson and others. The speeches were well received and the meeting was enthusiastic throughout, and closed up with three cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The republicans of Union are at work and propose doing their proportion towards increasing the republican majority to 3,500 in Old Rock. The town is nearly canvassed and arrangements will be made to bring every voter to the polls on election day. Will other towns in the county be found wanting? Let republicans everywhere wake up and commence the fight and prepare for the victory.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL MOVEMENTS .- It will be seen by referring to our telegraphic column that Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, who was announced to speak at Centralia, Ill., for Douglas, has declined to fill the appointment, and has announced his intention to support Breckinridge. Thus the leading friends of Douglas at the south desert him, to rally around their sectional candidate. On the other hand, the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat, the leading Douglas organ in Minnesota, announces that the hope of electing Douglas has van. ished; that his principles are no longer at issue in this campaign, and more than intimates that it is the duty of the friends of Douglas in the north to yote for Lincoln. We shall publish the article to-morrow.

THE BLUE COCKADE. - The "minute men" formed in state of South Carolina, have adopted a blue cockade. In 1798 the federal party adopted the black cockade, which became an odious political badge, so that those who had worn them were glad to conceal the fact from the public in after years. So it will be with the southern blue cock-

A LICK AT THE IRISH.—Cornelius O'Brien, an Irishman, was the democratic candidate for supreme court clerk in Indiana. In the townskip of St. Johns, Lake county, where the vote stood for Hendricks, dem., 158 to 21 republican, O'Brien did not get a single vote, and he run greatly behind thro'. out the whole state.

It was an assault that called forth an indignant condemnation on the part of all decent men, of all parties. But the "hand organ" over the river finds in it a matter for merriment and evident approval.

Modern democracy either of itself, or by manhood and decency in its advocates, or brutal.
